LINGUISTICS & LANGUAGE BEHAVIOR ABSTRACTS (LLBA)

Getting started
What is it?

• This database abstracts and indexes the international literature in linguistics and related disciplines in the language sciences from 1973 to present.

• Covers all aspects of the study of language including phonetics, phonology, morphology, syntax and semantics.

• Documents indexed include journal articles, book reviews, books, book chapters, dissertations and working papers.

• Updated monthly.
Search Tips

• Type your search terms into the boxes. OR similar terms together and the use AND to combine different terms.

• You can also use advanced techniques such as phrase searching and truncation.

• Phrase searching, using double quotation marks, forces the database to find the terms right next to each other. e.g. “swallowing disorders” “language delay”

• Truncation using the * symbol will find all the various endings of a term e.g. Parkinson* will find Parkinsons, Parkinson’s, Parkinsonism child* will find child, childhood, children, children’s

• Techniques can be used together e.g. “speech therap*” “language disorder*”

You can also limit your results, for example by scholarly journals.
If full text is available within the database it will be clearly marked. If no full text PDF link is shown click onto the UFind it button to access the full text from another supplier.
Accessing Full Text

• Most academic databases contain only bibliographic records, in order to access and read the full text we need to link out to another supplier.

• If full text from the databases is available it will be clearly marked e.g.

• If no full text link is available use the U Find It button to link out to one of our other suppliers
You can then read online or click on the PDF to download, print or save.
If you see a screen like the one above you can use the links to check the Library Catalogue and/or Google Scholar for full text. You will need to copy and paste the title of the journal/article respectively into each resource. If no full text is available can use the Library Document Delivery Service, http://library.ulster.ac.uk/documentdelivery/
