American Studies Journals

Titles which may be of interest to students of American Studies in the various campus libraries are listed below. All of these journal titles can be located in either the Library Catalogue (if print journals) or Electronic Journals link on the Library and ICT tab, Key services box, in the Portal. Details of location and dates covered are available from the catalogue & electronic journals link. Some titles are available both in print and electronically while others will be either print or electronic.

JOURNAL TITLE

American Anthropologist:
American Historical Review:
American Journal of Distance Education (electronic only)
American Journal of Health Promotion
American Journal of Sociology
American literature
American music
American Political Science Review
American Theatre
Harvard Business Review
Indigenous Law Journal
Canadian Historical Review
Caribbean Studies
Civil war history
European journal of American culture
Irish journal of American studies
Journal of American History
Journal of the American Musicological Society
Journal of American studies
Journal of Latin American Studies
Journal of negro history (continued as Journal of African-American History)
Journal of Southern history
Journal of the American Musicological Society (electronic only)
Latin American Research Review
Mississippi Valley historical review
Over here:
Pacific Historical Review
The state of black America
Studies in American Indian literatures
William and Mary Quarterly

Paper Abstracts and Indexes

The Library holds a small number of printed abstracts and indexes to help you to identify journal articles and other publications relevant to your research. Search for these in the catalogue under subject and abstract/bibliography or index.